The Louisville Post says; "First Auditor Chenoweth was, in a measure at least, excussible in refusing to appoint Kellar, after he had passed the Civil Service examination, because he was a Republican. The law has been a dead letter under so many Republican administrations, and the auditor was doubtles unaware of its existence. Under Arthur, Garfield and Grant it was a mere mockety, and we are not aware that the Commissioners made any outery at its repeated and flagrant violation. Secretary Manning, however, very properly declarated his purpose to respect the law, and had Kellar appointed. The case gives a pointed emphasis to the sincerity of a Democratic administration in enforcing a rule against its own party that had never been respected by its opponents."

The largest audience probably, that has ever assembled at the opera house, was present last night to witness the beautiful ceremonies of installing in their respective positions the newly elected officers of DeKalb Lodge, No. 12, L. O. O. F., of this city. Although the attendance was o large, the most respectful attention was given to the ceremonies, and the deepest interest manifested, a compliment which was greatly appreciated by the brethern of the order. The rocal music was an especially pleasing features of the entertainment and the address by Hon. W. H. Holt, Past Grand Master of Kentucky, was an eloquent and entertaining effort.
